

Press release

- The brand Little Nothing – Paula Castro was born in April 2013, in Porto – Portugal. It's me (Paula Castro) the only one worker. So, I do and make everything.
- My academic background is a Degree in Psychology. I worked twenty seven years as Consultant and as People Manager in industrial companies.
In the Summer 2013 I decided to change my professional life.
- Since ever, art was something that I was attracted to and I liked to make “things”.
I went to school to learn how to make jewellery and after the technic I have been attending several workshops with Lucy Saarnel, Benedick Fischer, Vivi Touloumidi, Eija Mustonen, Jorge Manilla and some others.
Since the first class, I knew that the kind of jewels and objects I would make would be with nature raw elements.
- Features of my work are: organic, simple, natural, emotional, imperfect asymmetric, irregular, poetic, diverse, movement and one of a kind.
- I like that my clients can identify themselves with the pieces they wear. So, a piece may be a sign of their individuality.
