

TEA TIME

There's nothing as calming as a well-brewed cup of tea. Eva Solo's Tea vacuum jug from the Nordic kitchen collection lets the aroma of freshly brewed tea waft through your home. Brew and serve tea in the same jug. The tea vacuum jug's built-in infuser draws out the loose leaf flavour and the jug keeps your brew hot for hours. Invite this elegant new arrival to your table when the wind is rushing outside and the time has come to enjoy the autumn with a good read or in the company of family and friends. The organic contours of the vacuum jug are elegantly accented by the practical bamboo handle.

The vacuum jug is fully drip-free so you avoid stubborn tea stains on the table, and the thermal insert in steel keeps your tea hot for hours. The handle should be maintained by regular oiling.
