THE POETRY OF ANIMALS

Ready-to-wear

NACH – ANIMAL POETRY IN PORCELAIN OR A FAMILY STORY

Nach is the story of two sisters, Nadia and Nancy Koch, brought together by their French-Thai heritage and a shared love for nature.

They grew up in their father's porcelain workshop, surrounded by the scent of pigments and the light reflecting on raw porcelain. That's where their desire to bring animals to life was born.

In 2011, they founded Nach in Toulouse. Nancy designs each piece, which is handcrafted and hand-painted in Thailand, while Nadia develops the brand and helps it shine on the international stage.

More than a brand, Nach is a colourful, joyful and untamed universe, inspired by the beauty of flora and fauna.

Nature is their muse, and the brand is committed to protecting it. A selection of their creations supports projects dedicated to the welfare and conservation of animals.

Nach is our universe.

We blend nature, animals, travel, memories, and everything that fills us with wonder.

Each porcelain piece tells a story of an emotion, an inspiration, or a fragment of life that we wanted to preserve.

Creations made with instinct, freedom, and a great deal of love.

Unmistakably Nach.

THE ART OF PORCELAIN

At Nach, every piece of jewellery is a true work of art. More than 120 hours of craftsmanship and countless meticulous steps are required to create a single piece: sculpting, moulding, high-temperature firing, hand-painting, and gilding.

At the end of this process, the porcelain reveals its vibrant colours, distinctive brilliance, and exceptional lightness.

More than a technique, it is an art form, where every gesture embodies luxury and emotion.

READY-TO-WEAR WITH DISTINCTIVE, COLOURFUL PRINTS

Since 2016, Nach has expanded its universe into ready-to-wear, creating garments with unique prints. The fabrics are carefully selected and made primarily in Europe, with genuine attention to every detail. And, as always, the brand signature completes each piece: the porcelain button.

Collections designed for those who want to wear the Nach universe every day.

More than 120 hours of work for a single piece.

THE NACH ANIMAL UNIVERSE

The leopard and birds remain the brand's signature animals, while each collection introduces new species into the Nach world. Every animal is reinvented through the unique Nach style, instantly recognisable.

French brand Nach continues its story with the cult series Emily in Paris, making a new and notable appearance in Season 5.

After already catching the attention of the series' stylists in Seasons 2 and 3, when Emily, played by Lily Collins, wore Nach creations, the brand is back on screen this season.

This time, it's the character Mindy who wears several iconic pieces from the maison: the Nach flower hoops and the leopard-and-flower necklace, a signature combination blending boldness, poetry, and character.

OUR COMMITMENTS

Protecting nature is much more than an inspiration: it is a conviction.

For several years, Nach has been collaborating with the Zoo-Refuge de La Tanière, working to care for and protect animals that have experienced difficult lives.
