

PRESS RELEASE

1 September 2022, Vilnius

TABLE TRENDS. Whimsical Abundance is a new table trend!

Minimalism is over. Abundancy with a zest for eccentricity is what table decorators and event's organisers are looking for their table settings! You too can splash a creative dinner with the help of bold and beautiful nature-inspired LINOROOM linen napkins. Naturalistic garden veggies will look great not only in the country house but also during an audacious back-to-the-city autumn party. Straight-from-the-water looking Fish napkins will be a great addition to gourmet's table. Conifer Trees napkins will transfer your quests to the wilderness of ancient forests. Like surprises? LINOROOM napkin sets are composed of 6 different design napkins (!) so every guest will have their own and unique napkin!

LINOROOM creates 100% linen table and kitchen textiles with vibrant nature-inspired designs. They aim to make our everyday living or special occasions more delightful and entertaining. Created here in Europe, Linoroom products carry Nordic values in their DNA: timeless designs, quality of materials, sustainability.

More than ever is important to know that by choosing 100% linen LINOROOM products you are making a nature-conscious decision! Linen is a sustainable 100% plant-based fabric. Its cultivation and production are water-efficient, not polluting and residue-free, which is beneficial for nature. Linen is naturally hypoallergenic and safe for people having allergies or sensitive skin
