

WORMLEY
COLLECTION

DUISTT
INTERIOR DESIGN

A design that offers lightness and elegance in its lines

Wormley Collection stands out for its traditional and classic design. The collection includes seatings, such as armchair, dining chair, bar and counter stools. Handcrafted carefully with exquisite materials that reinforce the importance that Duistt attaches to artisanal work.

Here, the boundaries between the design object and the artistic object are blurred

Wormley

Stools

The Wormley collection was created from the will and desire to develop luxury furniture with special attention to quality and timeless design. Manufacturing and traditional techniques as one of the main bases of Duistt.

Dining Chair

Wormley

Dining Chair

Exploring different finishes and different measurements, an entire upholstery collection was created bearing the wormley name.

The Wormley dining chair, which today is one of the brand's best sellers, introduces the natural cane through a contemporary shape with this traditional technique.

ABOUT DUISTT

Since its foundation in 2014, Duistt has been recognized for its contribution to creating experiences memorable through design. The Portuguese luxury furniture brand breathes history and modernity through objects that are committed to the comfort and quality of materials. Duistt puts people at the center of attention – how they live, what they want and how they use their objects – the creative team works hand in hand with its customers for a personalized experience, creating tailor-made projects. All Duistt products are handcrafted and to order and can be customized with different sizes and materials. Here, the expertise and traditional techniques used to create each Duistt pieces are essential, a know-how that crosses generations and that the brand is keen to preserve and support in its global strategy. As they integrate a rigorous manufacturing process, the products follow a lead time that varies between 6 and 10 weeks.
