MAOMI wins the GERMAN DESIGN AWARD 2023!

MAOMI is winner of the GERMAN DESIGN AWARD 2023!!!

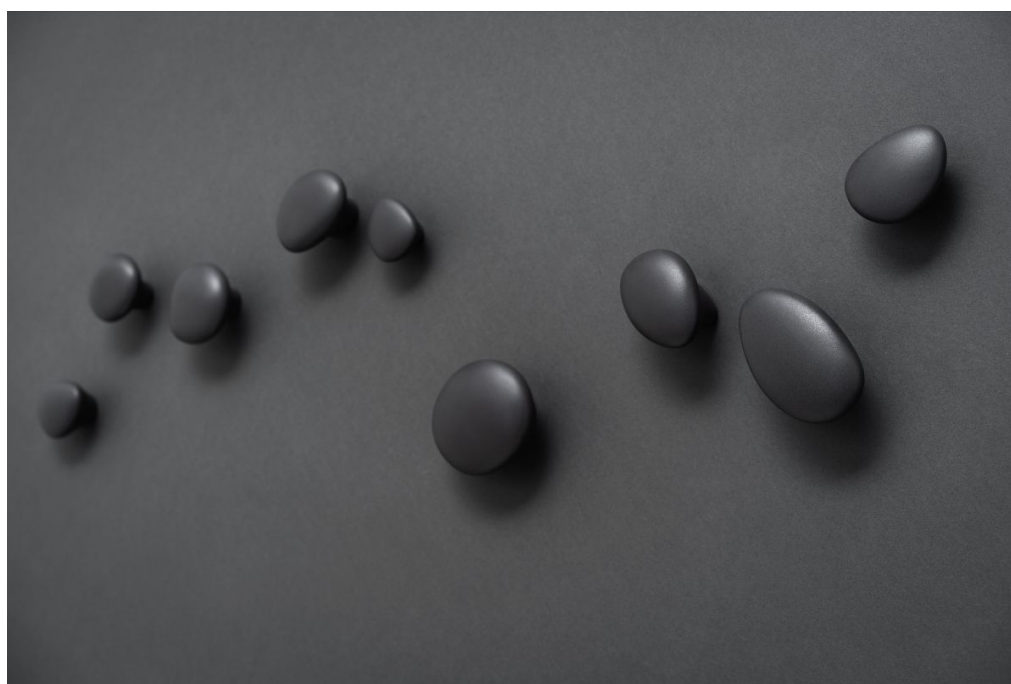

After the first nomination of our wall installation HOOKS in August, we have now received the joyful news that our unique coat hooks have been awarded the German Design Award 2023 in the category "Furniture".

The German Design Award is presented by a prestigious jury of judges to manufacturers and designers who enrich the international design-oriented scene with innovative products and projects and set groundbreaking trends in the design industry.

HOOKS are wardrobe and object art at the same time. The form originates from the hands of the ceramic artist we work with. In Sri Lanka, the mould was taken directly from it, cast from natural earthenware, fired, glazed and fired again - a workshop-to-workshop design that connects across countries.

Hand-cast from high-quality material, the HOOKS combine minimalist clarity with strength and naturalness. In colour and shape, they are reminiscent of pebbles that have been finely polished by water.

We are proud that the careful craftsmanship that brings our HOOKS to life, but also the inspiring artistic conception that gave rise to the design and idea, has been honoured by the award.
