

Ethnicraft introduces Mellow, the ultimate modular sofa

Further complementing Ethnicraft's upholstery range, the Mellow sofa originates from our search for ultimate comfort, a piece that would be the central anchor in a space. Its endless variations and effortless style make it the perfect companion for any situation, whatever the context.

Discover why Mellow is the ultimate modular sofa:

- Extra comfortable, timeless design
- 5 modules for endless configurations
- Neutral colourway to complement any interior
- Recycled cotton with stain-resistant protection
- European made

Clean design

The goal was simple: Create the most comfortable sofa, an essential item that would be the backdrop of life for many years. The result is a clean and refined design with subtle seam detailing and softly rounded edges. Effortless elegance, nothing extra. As a blank canvas, style it with cushions and throws to add your personal touch.

Infinite modularity

One, two, three or more, the smart modules can be endlessly configured and combined with clips to arrange your own layout. Whether you prefer a more compact and cosy setting or are looking for a large sofa for a crowd, the Mellow can accommodate any situation.

5 modules available to compose the sofa that suits your needs and space.

Exceptional comfort

From the height of the backrest to the depth of the seat, every detail has been reworked to provide an incredible mellow feel. The high-density foam is placed in individual compartments to maintain impeccable form over time and through heavy use, while additional crushed foam offers the optimal support.

Durably made

The high-quality, neutral upholstery complements both the wider Ethnicraft collection and a broad range of interiors. The textile made in Italy contains recycled cotton and is protected against smaller life accidents thanks to its stain- and water-repellent coating. The structure is fully handmade in Europe, combining innovation and craftsmanship.
