For the past 25 years, Lorena Canals has been turning out thoughtfully designed decor for children's rooms using the best raw materials and natural dyes. Her creations inspire fantasy: Take for example this Path of Nature play rug. Thanks to its many textures, details and nature-inspired colors, the floor covering resembles a rugged landscape with a river, trees and winding path that could keep a little one busy for hours with imaginative play. The best part: After a particularly messy playdate, just throw it in the machine for a wash.
