ONE MORE LOOK

Bring colours into the home or find a sense of calm and groundedness with the new expansion of the UIMAGE One More Look mirror. Ensuring a design choice that suits diverse needs and styles, we're now welcoming six new door variants to the collection.

Addressing everyday needs, the One More Look mirror combines minimalistic Scandinavian design with exceptional functionality. The light and airy full-length mirror takes up minimal space, making it ideal for any hallway, bedroom, or office corridor. With just the right height, it offers a full-length reflection for the perfect final look before leaving home. The mirror features a shelf and a small cabinet with a handheld mirror and a leather tray – perfect for storing daily essentials such as keys, makeup, sunglasses or spare coins.

The elegant design of the One More Look mirror is heightened further with six new variants of doors for the cabinet. To add a vibrant pop of colour to your home, opt for the new cabinet doors in nuance rose or nuance orange. Whether you want to add life to your hallway or add character to your bedroom, the nuance rose, and nuance orange will bring joy to your space and captivate your senses. For a more subtle option, the nuance mist and nuance olive bring calmness to the home, and the soothing hues will blend in with any interior, creating an atmosphere of serenity. Embrace modern simplicity and opt for the full oak or the Venetian cane door – a sophisticated and classic choice that will elevate the design as well as its surroundings.

One More Look is designed to complement your home, creating a space where elegance, versatility and functionality harmoniously coexist.
