

PRESSE RELEASE

« a natural and designer touch for your interior decoration »

Nils Orm, wood sculptor, will be present at the Maison & Objet fair from September 7 to 11, 2023

Just three years after the launch of his activity as a wood sculptor, Nils Orm will be present for the second time at the Maison et Objet show in January 2023. An emerging artist to watch closely...

Nils Orm is known for his unique designs, which highlight the natural beauty and imperfections of wood while creating elegant, modern shapes. His large-scale sculptures and wall panels have been widely praised for their minimalist aesthetic and careful finishing.

"I am very happy to participate in Maison et Objet," said Nils Orm. "It's an honor to be able to present my works to an international audience of interior design and interior professionals. I can't wait to share my ideas and see how people respond to my pieces."

The Maison et Objet show, which will be held from September 7 to 11, is considered one of the most important events in the interior decoration and design industry in Europe. It attracts thousands of visitors from all over the world every year, who come to discover the latest trends and new creations from international designers and artists.

Nils Orm's works will be presented in the Craft space, hall 5A, stand i38 of the show. Visitors are invited to come and discover them and meet the artist during the exhibition.
