

Martens and Martens and SUITE702 join forces for striking bathroom collection.

Martens and Martens and SUITE702 have joined forces to introduce a strikingly unique bathroom collection. The collaboration combines the signature handwriting of the renowned Dutch artist and designer Karel Martens with lifestyle brand SUITE702's love of colour.

Karel Martens is known for his vibrant use of colour, geometric shapes and optical effects. In his 2017 project 'Colours on the Beach' for Le Havre, Martens used 10 colours in different widths to create an almost infinite range of possible permutations. This concept formed the basis for SUITE702's new bathroom collection.

This collaboration resulted in a collection that was instantly sold out. The partnership continues and the collection now entails an even wider range of items with even more unique colour combinations.

Each item has a stripe of different widths in different colours, with the front and back varying each time. Each towel is different and yet clearly family. The entire collection consists of six guest towels, four bath towels, four towels, four bathmats and two beach towels.

Guest towels (30x50) in a set of 3
 Towel (50x100)
 Bath towels (70x140)
 Beach towels (90x180)
 Bath mats (50x80)

€29,95
 €19.95
 €39,95
 €59.95
 €39.95

ABOUT SUITE702

SUITE702 was founded by Shirley Muijers and Olaf Arkauer in 2018. It is an Amsterdam-based bed and bath textile brand that aims to entice people to celebrate life in bed with luxury products in distinct colours. The items meet the strictest sustainability criteria (GOTS-certified) and are characterised by their premium quality. The brand name is a reference to the historic Bed-In for World Peace held by John Lennon and Yoko Ono in 1969 in Suite702 of the Hilton Hotel in Amsterdam.