

pulpo unveils exciting additions at Paris Maison & Objet Fair + celebrates 10 years anniversary of the ODA lamp

Paris, France 18.-22.01.2024

pulpo is thrilled to announce its stunning showcase at the prestigious Paris Maison et Objet Fair, marking a decade-long celebration of design excellence with the ODA lamp by Sebastian Herkner and the debut of the Boule lamp in captivating new marble colorways.

10 Years of Brilliance: The ODA Lamp by Sebastian Herkner

A testament to timeless design, the ODA lamp celebrates its 10th anniversary as a beacon of innovation and artistry. This masterful creation continues to captivate with its fusion of contemporary aesthetics and functional elegance. This milestone marks a decade of illuminating spaces worldwide with its unique character and sophisticated charm.

Boule Lamp: Evolving Elegance with New Marble Hues

In a display of ingenuity and sophistication, pulpo introduces the Boule lamp with fresh, enchanting marble hues for its base, a design collaboration once again led by the visionary Sebastian Herkner. The infusion of new marble colors elevates the Boule lamp's allure, adding a touch of opulence and modernity to any interior setting.

The Paris Maison et Objet Fair serves as the perfect backdrop to unveil these captivating designs, showcasing pulpo's commitment to pushing boundaries and redefining the artistry of contemporary lighting.

"We are thrilled to commemorate the 10th anniversary of the ODA lamp and introduce the enhanced Boule lamp at this prestigious event," says Patrick L' Hoste, founder of pulpo. "Our collective of designers has poured their creativity into these designs,,continuing our journey of crafting pieces that redefine spaces and inspire discerning enthusiasts worldwide."

Visit pulpo's exhibit at Paris Maison et Objet Fair to experience the brilliance of the ODA lamp's milestone and explore the captivating allure of the Boule lamp's new marble colorways.
