

BROSTE COPENHAGEN

PRESS RELEASE JANUARY 2024

Let's go outside

Soon, it's time to start and end every day outside; and we have just the right selection of novelties that will make your patio, terrace or balcony look warm and welcoming.

Enjoy the new season with some fresh, new additions to your outdoor space. Impromptu barbecues, weekend brunches and Sunday lunches are best enjoyed outside, and so you might want to redecorate or just add a few new items to make your old sun loungers or garden furniture appear fresh and up to date.

The popular Franca series of seating cushions, covers and beach mattresses is now launched in a new, delightful version with a beige cotton base and fudge brown stripes. The Broste outdoor assortment will also feature a new minimalist lantern, Saya, that will light up your patio as well as the darker corners of your garden, ensuring that a joyful evening outside can extend its course well beyond midnight.

Finally, we will give you plenty of reasons to 'go green' with an array of new planters. Ray and Fiber come in timeless nuances of beige, and are created in a sleek, minimalist design, whilst the new hanging flowerpot, Eya, in glazed ceramics, will add a hint of nostalgic charm to the small nooks of your terrace or hanging from your gazebo.
