La Savonnerie Royale launches its new Secret Impérial candle, a unique fragrance inspired by Napoleon Bonaparte

Savonnerie Royale is delighted to announce the release of the new Secret Impérial scented candle! This unique fragrance, first launched as a solid soap, is now available as a colorful scented candle to complete the new Colored Collection!

A historic olfactory signature

As with our previous fragrances, La Savonnerie Royale wanted its perfumes to bear witness to the history and richness of France's heritage. The Secret Impérial Grasse fragrance pays particular tribute to the iconic figure of Napoleon Bonaparte and his passion for cologne.

Discover its history:

Long associated with Versailles, Napoleon Bonaparte is also known for his passion for eau de cologne. His imperial secret: use it generously ad infinitum. With notes of eau de cologne and vetiver, this fragrance will make you feel like an emperor!

Excellent craftsmanship for exceptional quality

The Secret Impérial scented candle has been created in partnership with the historic manufacturer and supplier of candles to the Royal Families of Europe, reflecting a unique expertise.

Our scented candles contain a natural, vegan vegetable wax, composed of soy and coconut oils, as well as mango butter. This trio of ingredients has been selected by our waxmaking partner to form a wax of exceptional quality, as well as a lead-free cotton wick combining elegance and safety.

The candle box's luxurious packaging features gold hot stamping, making it a unique gift.
