A Special Collection of Mirrors Inspired by the September 2024 Edition of Maison et Objet to Celebrate its 30th Anniversary

Paris, France – 8.7.2024 - On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the prestigious Maison et Objet Fair in Paris, Narcis is delighted to unveil an exclusive collection of mirrors, inspired by the visual communication of the September 2024 edition.

The new collection, titled "Cosmic Reflections," draws inspiration from the iconic red planets and yellow gradients featured in this year's theme. Each mirror is a work of art, capturing the cosmic and vibrant essence of the universe through bold and innovative designs. Elements of street art are also incorporated to impose a modern and urban style.

Highlights of the "Cosmic Reflections" Collection:

- Inspired Design: Mirrors depicting red planets with yellow gradients, reflecting the graphic universe of the September 2024 edition of Maison et Objet.
- Variety of Sizes: Available in multiple dimensions to suit all spaces, from small apartments to large villas.
- Street Art Themes: Touches of street art add a contemporary and dynamic dimension, perfect for avant-garde design enthusiasts.
- High-Quality Craftsmanship: Handcrafted by skilled artisans, each mirror is unique and of exceptional quality.
- Innovation and Tradition: A fusion of traditional techniques with modern approaches for a stunning visual effect.

The Maison et Objet Fair, a must-attend event for interior design and decoration enthusiasts, is the perfect venue to showcase this unique collection. Narcis invites industry professionals, design lovers, and the general public to discover these spectacular creations during the event.

Quotes: "We are honored to celebrate this 30th anniversary with a collection that not only pays tribute to the September 2024 edition of Maison et Objet but also captures the spirit of innovation and creativity. 'Celestial Reflections' is a series of mirrors that not only reflect images but also tell a unique visual story," said Emanuelle Zufferey, CEO and Designer of Narcis.
