Zaconi Unveils New Collection and Celebrates Maison & Objet Debut

July 2024, Amsterdam – Zaconi is thrilled to unveil its latest collection, a stunning showcase of nature's raw beauty transformed into exceptional art. Designed by Amsterdam-based Dayinne Potuyt, this new line captures Zaconi's commitment to timeless design and unparalleled craftsmanship, each piece radiating the unique allure of nature in an extraordinary way.

As Zaconi makes its debut at Maison & Objet, the prestigious international trade fair for lifestyle, decoration, and design, this launch marks a pivotal moment in our journey. It underscores our dedication to creating pieces that embody the essence of nature's elegance.

Every item in this new collection is a fusion of simplicity and elegance, meticulously handcrafted from exquisite onyx. These pieces are not just functional; they are striking artistic statements that elevate any space with refined sophistication. The captivating patterns and luxurious texture of the onyx make each piece a standout centerpiece.

Dayinne Potuyt reflects, "This collection embodies the tranquil beauty of the natural world, merging refined modernity with harmonious forms. We are excited to showcase our work at Maison & Objet and share this unique vision with a broader audience."

Zaconi extends heartfelt thanks to the design community and enthusiasts for their continued support. We warmly invite you to visit our booth at Maison & Objet to experience the elegance and craftsmanship of our new collection firsthand.
