Mediterranean rusticity - new ARTA series

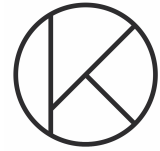

The characteristic Mediterranean flair of the town of Artà in the north-east of Mallorca has inspired Detlef Klatt, designer and founder of the brand Klatt Objects, to create a brand new series. Translated into three shapes, clear silhouettes meet original patterns, which are worked into the matt polished surfaces in a traditional way. The handmade ARTA series will be launched in pure white bone china, creating an interesting tension between the deliberately 'imperfect' surfaces and the special radiance of the high-quality material. The new Klatt Objects series comprises two vases and two multifunctional vessels, their elements are between 17 cm and 29 cm high.
