

PRESS RELEASE

Nils Orm presents his creations at the Salon Maison & Objet 2025: a bold homage to wood and color

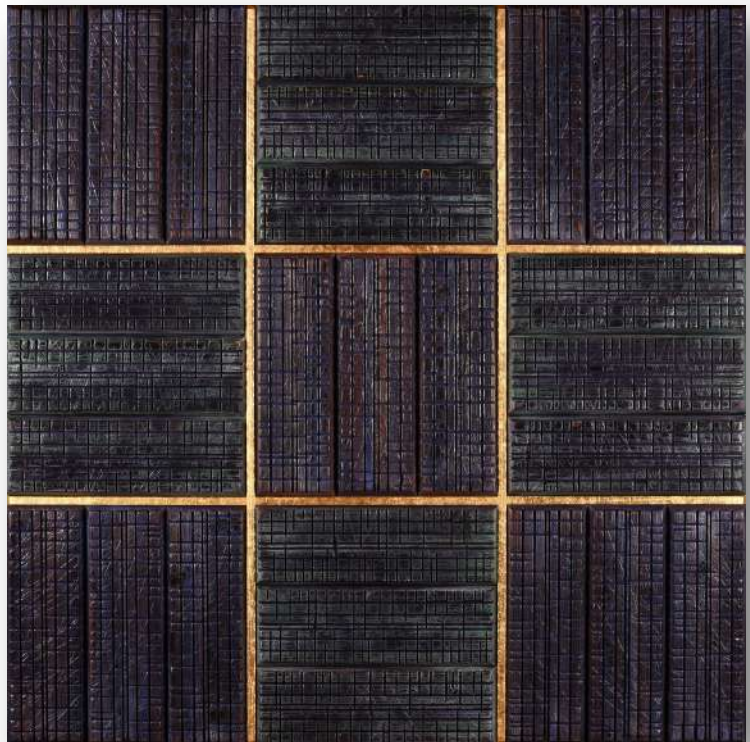

From January 16 to 22, 2025, wood sculptor Nils Orm will be present at the prestigious Salon Maison & Objet, at the Parc des Expositions in Paris Nord Villepinte. Installed in the Craft sector, Hall 5A, stand H65, the artist will exclusively present his new collection which redefines the aesthetic possibilities of wood.

Avant-garde work: the exploration of color and innovative finishes

This year, Nils Orm dares to use color and reinvents his wooden sculptures and decorative panels. Drawing on innovative finishing techniques, he incorporates tinted iron oxides, giving his pieces subtle and vibrant nuances.

Each sculpture, created by hand, is a unique piece and is distinguished by a perfect alliance between natural textures and contemporary touches. Some of his creations also feature gilding made with gold leaf, giving a timeless elegance to the works.

« Wood is a living material, and each piece tells a story. With this new collection, I wanted to explore new aesthetic dimensions by playing with color and light. », explains Nils Orm.
