Sandrine Herlin's ceramic baobabs are once again on show at Maison&Objet - January 2025 edition: a delicate association of technique and natural poetry.

Immerse yourself in the enchanting world by Sandrine Herlin, where ceramics become both an artistic expression and a craft know-how, imbued with a poetic depth, colossal, and imagery inspired by his childhood memories in Africa.

Her creations, both rooted and aerial, draw dreamlike landscapes inhabited by invisible and benevolent creatures. Clouds, huts and majestic baobabs, emblems of Guinea where she lived.

Each work of Sandrine is a unique and signed sculpture-object, meticulously designed with great attention to technical details. It combines the tangible and the imaginary, creating Objects that transcend their decorative function to become evocative symbols, grigris that awaken the imagination and instill sweetness, surprise and fantasy in the spaces they occupy.

Constantly evolving, while adding a touch of poetry and personalization to each environment, her works sometimes tend towards small furniture, adapting perfectly to different environments, whether it is the intimacy of a living room or the immensity of a reception hall.

Since 2004, Sandrine Herlin has exhibited in several galleries in France and abroad, in particular in Brussels. Responding to custom orders, she stands out during her participation in the prestigious Maison & Objet trade shows in Paris or at the Delft Ceramic Days in the Netherlands.

Her graphic and colorful universe also gave her collaborations with brands like Vertbaudet and Masureel in her early career.

Halfway between two worlds, and true testimony of their versatility and the timeless appeal that they provide, her works have been exhibited in a museum setting at La Piscine de Roubaix and the Art School of Douai.

Sculptural Baobabs, Dreamlike Refuges and small furniture are invitations to escape, where ceramics allow exploration of new worlds both personal and universal.

Baobabs sculpturaux
The carved baobabs are noble and proud pieces that combine power and finesse.
Their matt finish and earthy shades capture the essence of nature. True lost paradise that everyone can interpret their own way, they bring in turn mystery and comfort.
