PRESS RELEASE

The Napking brings Italian textile excellence to Maison et Objet 2025

The Napking, a leading brand in high-end table linens, is pleased to announce its participation as an exhibitor at Maison et Objet, from January 16th to 20th, 2025, at the Paris Nord Villepinte Exhibition Centre.

With over 60 years of history in the production of fine textiles in Italy, The Napking presents its new Spring-Summer 2025 collections that skillfully blend craftsmanship with contemporary design. Visitors will discover our creations made of pure linen, premium linen, and pure cotton satin, 100% Made in Italy, characterized by a vibrant color palette designed for the spring/summer season.

Highlights of our presence at the fair include:

- New collections in linen and premium linen
- Pure cotton satin collections with original prints
- Expansion of the "Bell'Italia" mini-collection with two new Italian tourist destinations
- OEKO-TEX certified products, guaranteeing quality and sustainability

"Our participation in Maison et Objet represents an important showcase to display Italian manufacturing excellence in the home textile sector," states The Napking management. "Our products tell a story of tradition, innovation, and attention to detail that characterizes true Made in Italy."

We invite you to visit our stand C26-D25 located in Hall 4, where you can discover our latest collections and Italian table art interpreted in a contemporary key.
