

KDLN @ MAISON&OBJET 2025. From 16 to 20 January, the Paris fair will be welcoming the Italian decorative lighting brand.

The company will be showcasing its most iconic products and offering all visitors the chance to enter a competition to win a Bird Table.

The heart of the stand will be illuminated by two Kate Suspension lamps with a gold leaf finish, new for Kdln in 2024. With its unique design and customisable finish, this pendant adds a touch of exclusivity and modernity to any space.

The same designer, Francesca Smiraglia, will also be exhibiting the Model T floor lamp, a perfect example of linearity and simplicity of form, and the Dala Linear suspension lamp, a harmonious blend of form and function.

The Kushi collection, which is celebrating its tenth anniversary this year, will also be on show. With their recognisable design and ability to create an enveloping atmosphere, they have become a veritable icon over the years.

The Dew pendant lamps and the Azou wall lamp, perfect examples of versatility and refinement, will also be unmissable.
