

Wooly, the first white noise nightlight designed in France

A GENTLE AND REASSURING INNOVATION BY TROIS KILOS SEPT.

The French baby essentials brand Trois Kilos Sept is launching Wooly, the very first white noise nightlight imagined and designed in France. Combining sensory technology with softness, Wooly is the new bedtime companion for peaceful nights for babies and their parents!

WHY PARENTS WILL LOVE IT

- Poetic, French-designed look
- A real sleep aid
- The perfect gift: for birth or baby shower

NO NEED TO COUNT SHEEP ANYMORE – JUST COUNT ON WOOLY!

We imagined Wooly as a comforting, stylish, and practical object. A glowing cocoon to soothe little ones, and bring reassurance and relief to parents.

Charlène, Designer at Trois Kilos Sept

WHAT WE LOVE:

- 3 brightness levels and 9 LED color options
- 3 white noise sounds to calm and lull baby to sleep
- Voice recorder to leave a comforting message
- USB-C rechargeable
- Machine-washable plush
