KLATT OBJECTS Updates Autumn 2025

FIFO mug – design freedom in pure white

Clear shape, endless possibilities. The new mug expands the design freedom of the FIFO series (shown here with the FLORA series). © Klatt Objects

Striking in its simplicity: the timelessly elegant design of the FIFO series makes it one of the most versatile all-rounders in the Klatt Objects collection. With their understated style, the vases and candle holders elegantly enhance a wide range of interior styles and arrangements. With the new 'mug for flowers, the series now offers a practical intermediate size that further perfects the ensemble. These delicate, handcrafted objects are made of ultra-fine, traditionally manufactured bone china, which is characterised by its distinctive pure white colour and exceptional hardness.
