

Press - EN

Vintola Studio once again at Maison&Objet in Paris

Vintola Studio is once again showcasing its furniture collection at the prestigious Maison&Objet fair in Paris – one of the world’s leading design events.

The brand combines contemporary design with timeless elegance. Its collections stand out with slender forms, refined details, and functionality, always created with user comfort in mind.

Participation in Maison&Objet confirms Vintola Studio’s growing international presence and its consistent pursuit of a distinctive design language.