

SPRING / SUMMER 2026

CRAFTED FROM WASTE

In a world where it's so easy to throw things away, we choose to reuse.

Our baskets and bags are carefully handwoven, giving plastic a second life, turning leftover materials into something beautiful, durable and unique. Each product tells a story of craftsmanship and dedication. In the rural villages of China and Vietnam, local artisans weave them with care and precision after working in the corn and rice fields.

By giving waste new purpose, we create not only distinctive, user-friendly and sustainable products, but also contribute to a circular production process. What was once considered waste is transformed into something valuable; a product that is gentle on the planet and supports the livelihood of its makers.

Our products are thoughtfully designed, fairly made and sustainably crafted.

Crossbody CHARLIE, the flap bag that combines timeless elegance with modern style. The warm, natural brown colour of the bag itself contrasts beautifully with the handles. The flap closure gives the crossbody bag a classic touch, inspired by iconic flap and satchel bags, but with a contemporary twist.

The woven effect of the CHARLIE ensures that it always retains its graceful silhouette and luxurious appeal. The long handles make it comfortable to wear over the shoulder or crossbody, while the shorter handles make it elegant to carry by hand. This handwoven bag made from recycled plastic is strong and stylish. You can combine it endlessly with your outfits, season after season.
