

Dutch Style Unveils New Handcrafted Lampshade Collection in Exclusive Colours at Maison et Objet

Dutch Style, a leading wholesaler of unique lighting and home accessories in Baroque style, proudly announces the launch of its new handcrafted lampshade collection. This vibrant and colorful collection will be showcased at the international interior fair Maison et Objet in Paris.

The new lampshades are handmade with care, combining bright, striking colours with Dutch Style's signature Baroque design. This collection demonstrates how craftsmanship and trend-driven colours come together in stylish lighting, perfect for both contemporary and classic interiors.

Visitors to Maison et Objet will get an exclusive first look at these unique lampshades, which will be available from the end of February via the Dutch Style webshop and B2B platform.

Dutch Style is a trusted partner for retailers, interior professionals, and concept stores worldwide. With a passion for artisan craftsmanship and distinctive home accessories, Dutch Style offers an extensive Baroque collection that combines tradition with modern design.
