Vision & Approach

Discover Lumia, the First Piece from the Aura Collection

Maison Cédric unveils Lumia, a sculptural table lamp inspired by the warm glow of Mediterranean sunsets.

Crafted in France in collaboration with local artisans, Lumia combines natural materials, contemporary design, and a soft ambient light. By day, it stands as a minimalist decorative object. By night, it transforms into a luminous halo, bringing warmth, character, and atmosphere to any interior.

LUMIA

The First Piece of the Aura Collection

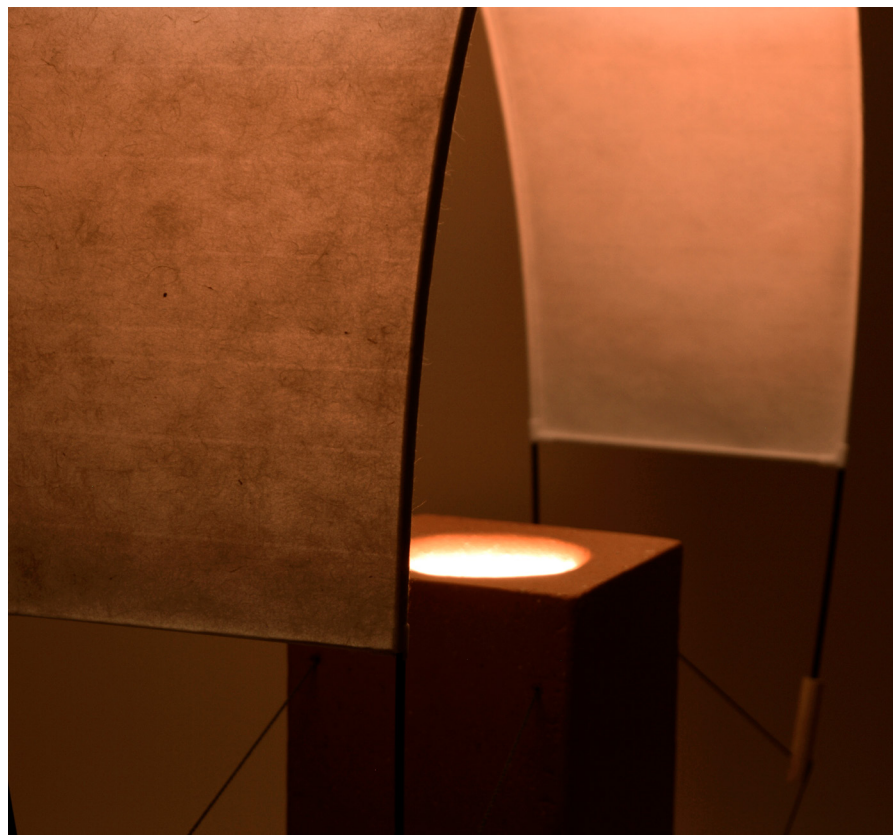

Aura explores the relationship between light, material, and space.

Lumia marks the collection's first expression — a sculptural lighting piece where contemporary design, natural materials, and artisanal craftsmanship come together.

From Monolith to Glow

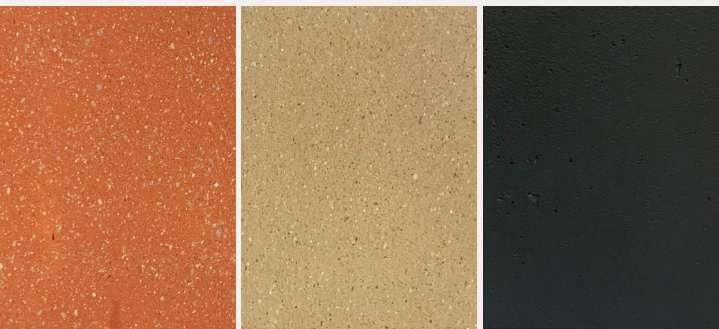

Conceived as an object with a singular presence, Lumia captures the warmth and softness of the sun's final rays as they fade beyond the horizon.

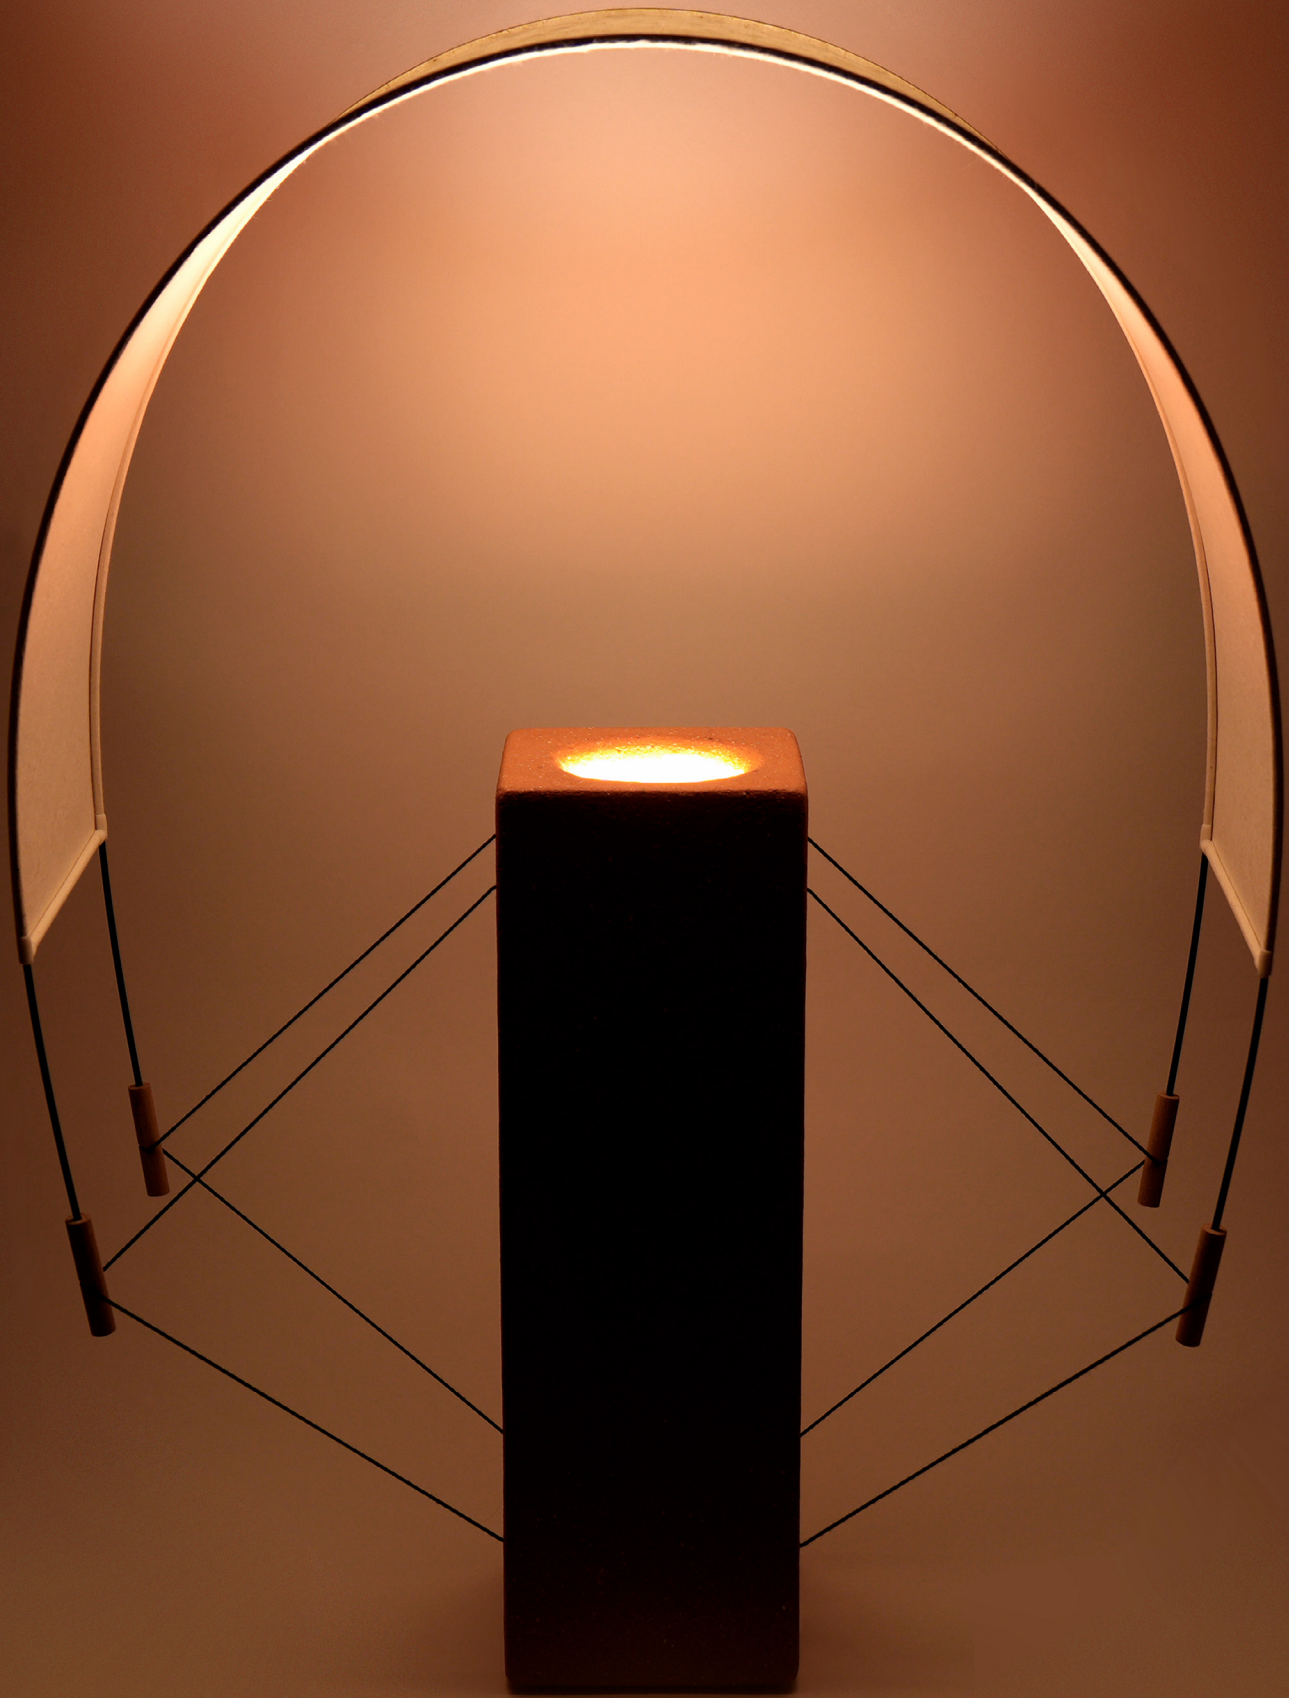

Its refined silhouette allows it to stand as a sculptural element within a space, while its diffused light creates a warm and intimate atmosphere.

*Available in three finishes:
terracotta, raw clay, and hand-painted black terracotta.*

Made in France

Each Lumia lamp is crafted and assembled in France.

Maison Cédrat collaborates with a family-owned brickworks near Toulouse and a traditional paper maker in Southern France.

This approach celebrates local craftsmanship through a thoughtful attention to materials, production, and enduring quality.

About Maison Cédrat

Maison Cédrat is a creative house born in Occitania, in the South of France.

Inspired by Mediterranean light and the region's landscapes, it creates distinctive and poetic objects imbued with a sense of place.

Guided by a sensitive approach to design, Maison Cédrat favours natural materials, essential forms, and artisanal craftsmanship.
