Article 1. Purpose

The present terms of sale aim to define the contractual relationship between Horizon Creative Studio and the buyer and the conditions applicable to any purchase made through the mom.maison-objet.com website. The acquisition of a product through the present site implies an unreserved acceptance by the buyer of the present conditions of sale, which the buyer acknowledges having read prior to his or her order.

The company Horizon Creative Studio reserves the right to modify these conditions of sale at any time, in order to comply with any new regulations or in order to improve the use of its site. Therefore, the applicable conditions will be those in force at the date of the order by the buyer.

Article 2. Products

The products offered are those listed on the mom.maison-objet.com website of the company Horizon Creative Studio, within the limits of available stocks. Horizon Creative Studio reserves the right to modify the range of products at any time. The products include design tools, rulers, stationery, drawing accessories, and related creative products. Each product is presented on the website in the form of a description of its main technical characteristics, including use, composition, dimensions, and other relevant specifications where applicable. The photographs are as accurate as possible but are not binding on the Seller. The sale of products presented on the mom.maison-objet.com website is intended for all buyers residing in countries that fully authorize the entry into their territory of these products.

Article 3. Prices

The amount of the professional prices appearing on the product sheets of the internet catalogue are prices in Euros (€) excluding taxes (HT). VAT will be added at the time of the order where applicable. Any change in the VAT rate may be reflected in the price of the products. The company Horizon Creative Studio reserves the right to modify its prices at any time, it being understood however that the price appearing in the catalogue on the day of the order will be the only one applicable to the buyer. The prices indicated do not include the delivery costs, invoiced in addition to the price of the products purchased according to the total amount of the order.

Article 4. Order and payment terms

Before ordering, the buyer must create an account on the mom.maison-objet.com website. The account creation section is accessible directly from the side menu bar. At each visit, the buyer, if he or she wishes to order or consult his or her account (status of orders, profile...), will have to identify himself or herself using this information. The company Horizon Creative Studio offers the buyer to order and pay for its products in several stages, with payment options available on the platform:

- By VISA or MASTERCARD: In case of payment by credit card, the debit is made on the date of the order. In the case of a refused transaction, the customer is invited to contact his or her bank. Horizon Creative Studio cannot be held responsible for a refused transaction. For payment by credit card, the platform may use secure payment systems such as 3D Secure. This protects customers from fraud by helping to ensure that the card is used by its real holder. After selecting the card type and entering bank details, the buyer may be redirected to his or her bank for authentication. Authentication methods may differ from bank to bank. Only the payment service provider and/or bank has knowledge of the buyer's card number. The transaction is processed through a secure link.

- Payment by SEPA or bank transfer: The buyer selects the products he or she wishes to order in the basket, modifies if necessary (quantities, references...), checks the delivery address or enters a new one. Then, the shipping costs are calculated and submitted to the buyer, as well as the name of the carrier. The buyer then chooses the payment method of his or her choice, where available. Finally, the last step offers the buyer to check all the information, to read and accept the present general terms and conditions of sale by ticking the corresponding box, and then invites the buyer to validate the order. This last click constitutes the final conclusion of the contract. As soon as the order is validated, the buyer receives an order form confirming the registration of the order. In order to finalize payment and start the processing of the order, the buyer must follow the payment instructions communicated by the platform or by Horizon Creative Studio. As soon as the transfer is received, the order will be processed and the buyer will be informed by e-mail. The company Horizon Creative Studio will send the products at the earliest 2 working days after reception of the transfer corresponding to the order, subject to provisions and stock availability.

- HOKODO: In case of payment by Hokodo, the amount of the Order will be paid by HOKODO as soon as the Products are ordered on the Platform. The Customer will then receive an invoice within 30 days to pay the amount of the Order.

Confirmation of an order implies acceptance of these terms and conditions of sale, acknowledgement of having full knowledge of them and waiver of the Customer's right to invoke its own terms and conditions of purchase. All the data provided and the recorded confirmation shall be considered proof of the transaction. If the buyer has an e-mail address and if he or she has provided it on the order form, Horizon Creative Studio or the platform will send confirmation of the registration of the order by e-mail.

In the event that, for any reason whatsoever, opposition, refusal or other, the transmission of the flow of money due by the Customer proves impossible, the Order and the sale will be cancelled.

If the purchaser wishes to contact the company Horizon Creative Studio, he or she may do so either by post at the following address: Joan Muyskenweg 38, PO: 8565, 1114 AN Amsterdam, The Netherlands; or by email at the following address: team@horizonruler.com, or by telephone at +31 6 1072 3341.
